

Freemasons' Hall

Step into a venue where the timeless allure of Art Deco meets contemporary adaptability, and every detail, from the majestic hall to the exclusive adjoining spaces, contributes to an event that is truly exceptional.

Freemasons' Hall:

A Grand Canvas for Unforgettable Events

Freemasons' Hall, a beacon of sophistication in London's West End, offers a distinctive venue for corporate and private events. Completed in 1933 with timeless Art Deco architecture, this iconic space transcends typical event locations. The Grand Temple, seating up to 1,350, exudes an air of elegance, making it perfect for conferences, awards ceremonies, and exclusive gatherings. Its Hollywood cameo in productions like The Crown and Spectre adds a touch of glamour. Strategically located in Covent Garden, the venue blends convenience with opulence, ensuring a seamless experience for your guests.

Choosing Freemasons' Hall isn't just about hosting an event; it's about making a statement, combining history, style, and convenience to create a truly distinguished corporate occasion.

Grand Temple at Freemasons' Hall:

A Majestic Venue for Unforgettable Events

Immerse yourself in the striking Art Deco splendour of the Grand Temple at Freemasons' Hall, where historic opulence and contemporary design unite to shape an extraordinary event venue. This iconic space Grade II space, offers fixed theatre-style seating for up to 1,350, making it perfect for conferences, seated awards ceremonies, graduations, and concerts with enchanting acoustics.

What sets this venue apart is not just its stunning design but also the inclusion of adjoining smaller rooms. These additional spaces, seamlessly integrated into the hire, offer options for refreshments, break-out areas, or private meetings, enhancing the overall event experience.

Exclusive access from the Tower Doors further elevates your event, ensuring a seamless transition between the Grand Temple and its accompanying spaces.

Vestibules at Freemasons' Hall: A Masterpiece of Versatility and Elegance

The Vestibules at Freemasons' Hall are a haven of sophistication, offering a unique backdrop for a variety of events. With a standing capacity of 450, this exceptional venue can seamlessly transform into three distinct spaces using decorative dividing doors, each exuding its thematic allure. Accessible exclusively through the grand Tower doors and a sweeping marble staircase, the Vestibules provide a grand entrance that befits their Art Deco magnificence.

Beyond their impressive capacities, the Vestibules' charm lies in their adaptability. Ideal for glamorous parties, dinners, conferences, receptions, filming, and fashion shows, this extraordinary space accommodates diverse occasions with unparalleled grace.

Gallery and Ante Room:

Timeless Elegance for Distinctive Gatherings

The Gallery Suite is a spacious and striking room, with high ceilings, natural light and traditional art deco features. It is an ideal space for daytime meetings and conferences with theatre style seating for 220 or cabaret for 100. The room can include a large screen and projector, small stage, in house PA and microphones.

The adjacent Ante Room offers a charming space for refreshments and drinks receptions. Making the combination of spaces perfect for evening diner dances, awards and reception style events. In this ground floor ensemble, each space contributes to a grand event experience, where sophistication meets practicality.

Other Spaces

Grand Officers Room and Robing Rooms

At the end of the Processional Corridor you'll find the Grand Officers' Robing Room with a maximum capacity of 80 seated (theatre style or round tables) or 150 standing. Flooded with natural daylight and adorned with grand portraits, this ornate room lends itself to dinners or intimate meetings. This novel space adjoining the Vestibules is can serve a multitude of functions. Be it, breakout space, pop up bars, casual seating or catering space.

Old Boardroom

With a capacity for up to 60 guests, The Old Boardroom is an impactful venue for intimate dinners or focused meetings. Partially wood-panelled, this distinctive space radiates a timeless ambiance, setting the stage for impactful and unique event experiences. Perfectly suited as a breakout space for the Gallery Suite, the Old Boardroom complements its grandeur with an inviting atmosphere. The Old Boardroom stands as a versatile space that effortlessly blends classic charm with contemporary adaptability.

More Information

Capacities

	Reception	Dinner / Seated	Theatre	Cabaret
Gallery Suite	220	220	220	80 (16x5)
Ante Room	150	80	80	N/A
Old Boardroom	60	60	60	60
Grand Temple	N/A	N/A	1350	N/A
Grand Temple Staged *	1200	450	1000	300
Vestibules	1138	450	TBC	TBC

*This space requires contracting an external company and therefore holds additional costs.

 Lower level theatre capacity is 900

As a dry hire space, we encourage collaboration with your chosen suppliers, ensuring your event reflects your unique vision. Beyond hosting events, your venue hire helps support the maintenance of our Grade II listed building. We appreciate every occasion held within our walls, as it contributes to the ongoing preservation of Freemasons' Hall. Join us in creating memorable moments in a space that not only serves your needs but also plays a modest role in the care and upkeep of our historic venue

Facilities Available

- Exclusive guest entrance
- Event lighting
- In-house AV
- Staging
- Dedicated cloakroom and restrooms
- Banqueting furniture
- Late license until 0200
- Complimentary WIFI

How To Find Us

We are situated between Holborn and Covent Garden stations within walking distance to ample buses and a short distance to Waterloo and Kings Cross.

For more information please get in touch at info@FreemasonsHall.com or 020 7395 9295